1. Supply officers picking up potatoes at the VEAB plant on Kuegen Island from 12 to 16 October included Major Zukhomlimov (phonetical spelling) who received 54 tons; Captain Bottsmann who received 50 tons and came with trucks driven by soldiers wearing AT insignia; and Captain Kosmin and Senior Lieutenant Matviyeff who both received 50 tons. All officers were stationed in Prora. On 15 November, Major Byriokoff and Captain Matviyeff came with trucks to pick up five small pigs which they planned to fatten on kitchen left overs of the unit. They were accompanied by soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia and who had the AT insignia on their left sleeve. They stated that the unit was quartered in tents and wooden buildings near Rugan just east of Bergen.¹
